Help Us Place a Kit!

It is our goal to supply the Veggie U, Earth to Table™ science program at no expense to the schools. Making this innovative teaching tool available to classrooms is only possible with your generous donations and sponsorships.

Take the next step and adopt a Veggie u classroom kit. You will be able to speak with our Education Coordinator to help determine the placement of your kit.

With the donation of $450, a classroom will receive a new kit
With the donation of $225, a teacher will be able to host the program the subsequent year with a refill kit

This dynamic curriculum includes all of the materials needed to teach the hands-on lessons covering healthy nutrition, sustainable agriculture and state-required plant studies .
